How to Consign with JBF: Step-by-Step Guide

Collect — new and gently-used clothing, toys, baby gear, nursery, maternity

Clean — The better your items look (and smell), the better they will sell!

Prep — Hang all clothing items with the hanger facing in the direction of a "?"

Price — Enter pricing on line in your JBF tagging account or use talk to text on your smart phone!

Print — Print your tags 4 or 6 to a page on white cardstock.

Attach — Secure tags to items using safety pins, a tag gun or tape for toys.

DropOff — Bring your prepped items to the sale and earn 60-70% on all sold items.

Watch — Monitor your sales online— watch your work pay off!

Cash In! — Sit back, relax, and think about what you can do with that consignor check!

Repeat! — It's easy to join us again and again—your consignor number is yours to keep!

Sounds Good- Help me get Started!

1. Login or create a new account, and check the "consignor" box for our event. If this is your first visit, you will be assigned a consignor number which is a unique selling number just for you. See this number at the top of your JBF Profile.

2. If you have time to help out during the sale with us, we'd love you! Just check the Team Member box as well when you register and it will open the scheduler to choose a shift.

3. After you register, you will receive an email confirmation. This will have your consignor number and indicate how you have decided to participate.

4. To start tagging: In the top taskbar of your profile, click the link for "Enter my tags" to be taken to the tagging site. This site is open 24/7/365 for tagging!

5. Look over the details on the consigning page of the website & the links on what to sell and selling tips. Join the Facebook Selling Group and utilize the group to help you along as you go.

6. Attend a New Consignor Meeting! They are FREE and open to anyone to attend. Classes are informal and Topics include: Tagging, Merchandising, review of myjbftags.com, and selling tips.
