Spring 2009 Sale
April 23-25, 2009
Kendall County Fairgrounds
in Boerne, TX

It's Almost SALE TIME!!

March has arrived, and we all know what that means—it's time to sell, sell, sell! And it's time to shop for incredible bargains, too!

Take a little extra time to ensure your items are ready for drop-off. Button all buttons, snap all snaps. Make sure all hangers have the hook pointing to the left, and tags on the right! Have your items sorted by gender and size.

Print off two copies of the consignor waiver—one for you and one for JBF. Also remember your car seat information checklist if you are consigning a car seat.

Shoppers—wear comfortable shoes and bring a laundry basket to carry items. Remember, no children at the pre-sales!

Tagging Tips

1. Load your cardstock.
2. Wait until your barcode images are completely loaded before printing.
3. Set your printer's print quality to "best".
4. After printing make sure the barcode is sharp and legible as illustrated on the right.

HAPPY TAGGING!!

« This is what you want your barcode to look like.

« Too light, will not scan.

« Blurred, will not scan.

« Broken barcode, printer problem, will not scan.

What should I be doing right now?

We are less than 30 days from our first sale. There are a few items you should be working on to make the sale a success for you:

Prepare the items you are going to sell.

1. You should already be signed up as a consignor.
2. You need to go to www.myjbf tags.com to create tags for your items.
3. Click here to review the detailed procedures to maximize your selling.

Sign up for volunteer shifts for the sale.

Express Check-In for Consignor Drop-Off!

Step #1 – Check-In

- Stop at the “Check-In & Information” Table.
- Sign and/or turn in your waivers – 1 copy for you, 1 for JBF San Antonio NW.
- Pick up your Consignor pre-sale shopping passes. If you volunteer, you will also receive your EXTRA early pre-sale shopping pass!

Step #2 – Inspection

- Volunteers will ensure all tagging requirements have been followed, and tags are easily visible and correct.
- Clothing will be checked to ensure they are clean and only gently used, meeting the guidelines outlined on the site. Please do not be offended if an item is returned to you. We want to ensure the highest quality possible for the sale!
- While we inspect, please place toys and baby equipment around the room as signs indicate.
- If you have items which do not pass inspection, please consider donating them to the Hill Country Pregnancy Care Center.

Step #3—Place Items On The Sales Floor

- Place your clothing on the proper racks according to size and gender. This will not take long if items are pre-sorted.
- Rolling racks will be available to help transport clothing items. If we have volunteers, we will gladly assist!

Step #4—Smile! You’re Done!

VOLUNTEERING PAYS!

We still have a few shifts left to fill. Here are the benefits to volunteering:

- If you are consigning, you can earn an extra 5% on your sale - 70%! All by helping out for a minimum of 4 hours. Make new friends along the way!
- You don't have to consign to volunteer. By volunteering, you earn the privilege of shopping before the public. And remember—the more you volunteer, the earlier you get to shop!

Check out the sale schedule below to find out when YOU can shop!
