I understand and agree that Just Between Friends (JBF) is not responsible to reimburse me in the event of fire, loss, theft or damage to my sale items. I trust JBF will do its best to ensure the safety of my items, and I understand there is NO obligation to pay me for items that are not sold or returned to me at the conclusion of the sale.

I understand that I will receive 60% as a Consignor OR 70% as a Team Member based on the sale of my items and I have prepaid the $12 Consignor fee via Eventbrite.

I have read and followed the sale guidelines as laid out on the website and understand the sale owners have the final say in what is accepted into the sale. Items may be pulled from the sales floor after dropoff if they are found to be an unaccepted item, overpriced (nothing over half of retail), stained, broken, dollar store items or part of a recall. Pulled items will be out for me to claim at pickup and after that will be donated or discarded.

I am the ONLY person selling with this consignor number. I am not tagging for multiple people with one number.

I have checked the Consumer Product Safety Commission website (CPSC.com) and to the best of my knowledge, I am not consigning any recalled items. If I DID bring a recalled item, I have fixed it according to product specifications. If bringing a car seat, I checked recall list for this item and will fill out a JBF car seat inspection checklist.

I understand that any unsold items at the end of the sale that have been marked with "Donate" will be pulled to the charity donation area BEFORE pick up. They will NOT be sorted with my things, nor will I be able to look through and reclaim them back once they are in the donation area.

I know when consignor pick up is. I understand that it is MY RESPONSIBILITY to come during this posted time, or send someone in my place and that ALL ITEMS NOT PICKED UP by 7pm will be immediately donated to the charity. I understand there will be NO exceptions made or items held for me after the stated pickup time ends.

I give permission for photos taken to be used in future advertising, either print, online or through social media.
