

How the JBF Inspection process works:

A. Items will be dropped off by consignors without being inspected

1. All Items

- Will be inspected after drop off and throughout the sale

- What items will be pulled off the sales floor?

- 2. Items torn or stained

- 3. Items overpriced

- 4. Items recalled

- 5. Items too worn (not “gently used”)

- 6. Items out of style

- 7. Items with tags out of date (2 years and older)

- 8. Items in wrong season (list available on website)

- 9. Items broken or missing pieces

- 10. Items with rust, water stains or mold

- 11. Items that pose a safety hazard

- Items will then be inspected by me, Laura Staggs, owner

- Tags that will be marked, charged $.50 for, and returned to consignor are:

- 1. Items torn or stained

- 2. Items recalled

- 3. Items with tags out of date (2 years and older)

- 4. Items broken or missing pieces

- 5. Items with rust, water stains or mold

- Tags that will have a note (not permanently marked), not charged for, but item returned to consignor are:

- 15. Items overpriced

- 16. Items too worn (not “gently used”)

- 17. Items out of style

18. Items in wrong season (list available on website)
19. Items that pose a safety hazard

While items may be pulled from the floor by any of our helpers or staff, please know that I will personally make the final call for all items deemed unacceptable. If an item is pulled in error, we will quickly get it back out on the floor to sell. If I determine that an item was pulled due to something outside of your control (e.g. clothing item fell on floor and became dirty) you will not be charged for this item.

When you pick up your items, I will be available for discussion about specific items that we did not accept. This is an opportunity for you to get a better explanation about an item if it is not obvious by our notations on your list of unaccepted items.

If you donate your items after the sale, you will receive a printout of the items that were not accepted with the reasons stated. These items will then be donated.

Please remember, this process is in place to better our sale, improve shopper experience, and make YOU, our valued consignor, more money! Please only bring us your best and everyone wins!

*Items missing pieces: If an item is missing a piece, this must be noted in the tag description and the item must be functional without the missing piece. This is acceptable, but I will make the final call on whether or not we will sell it (e.g. if it is not functional or poses a safety hazard it will be pulled). And remember, if you choose to consign an item with a missing piece, you MUST price accordingly.

If you have ANY questions, please feel free to email me laura@jbfsale.com