Compare JBF!

Garage Sales: You do all the work to price and organize your stuff. You have to invest in marketing your sale...money for signage and energy to place them out. You must be there all weekend. You get nicked and dined to death by bargainers and end up selling your stuff at rock bottom prices, so you don't have to sit there anymore.

JBF: You do the work to organize and price your items and them drop them off to us. We do the work to merchandise and sell your stuff, not to mention market the event to bring in the buyers. And, we don't negotiate on your prices, so you end up making more on the item - - even with the % JBF keeps. It's a piece of cake!

Craigslist: You hassle with emails and uninterested low-bidders. You open up your home and family to risk by allowing strangers to come by.

JBF: No email hassle, no risk of strangers. Let the buyers come to the venue we rent as a neutral territory!

Resale/Consignment Stores: Generally, you'll receive up to 45% on the value of your item. Remember, stores keep inventory and pay rent; so, they need to make more on your things. This costs you.

JBF: We don't buy or store your inventory. This allows JBF to give you a higher percentage on the sale. You'll keep 60-75% of the sales price in your pocket! Plus you will receive your check within two weeks of the close of the sale.
